Dorothy was born at Batoche in the Wakaw area on September 10, 1923 and was adopted by the Stroeder family. She took her schooling in Marysburg and then worked as a hired help in several places. Later on, she lived in Saskatoon where she worked at the King George Hotel. On July 10, 1945, Dorothy married Sylvester Strueby and lived in Moseley, SK. They were blessed with three girls: Lois, Audrey and Esther. Dorothy worked at Bauml's Store in Marysburg and later at Peavey Mart and in 1984 they moved into Humboldt and she continued to work there until she retired. Dorothy had the opportunity of meeting her birth mother and other family members which was a passion of hers to accomplish. She was an avid sports fan, loved playing bingo, and travelling to many places. Dorothy also loved quilting and made blankets for her children and grandchildren. She often went for breakfast and coffee with her many friends in Humboldt. After she sold her home, she resided in the Harry Ford Center in Humboldt. From there she moved to the care home in Watson and then later to St. Mary's Villa in Humboldt.

*Dear Mom and Grandma,
You have been a special blessing,
Your hands, always helping;
Your arms, always open;
Your face, full of smiles;
Your ears, ready to listen;
Your love, never ending;
Your heart, made of gold.
Love You Forever.*

Dorothy is survived by her three daughters: Lois (Cliff) Kutschinski and family, Darcy (Maureen) and children, Alysha and Dylan, Darren (Joy) and children, Tyler and Karli; Audrey (Carl) Clark and family, Shannon (Darrell) and children, Ashley and Torrie, Lindsay (Rhonda) and children, Noah and Andy, and step-grandchildren: Derrell, Calvin and Brent; Esther (Mike) Volk and family, Devin (Nichol) and children, Grace and Emma, Kelsey (Cam) and children, Jayce and Jordyn, and step-grandchildren: Jeremy, Wes and Michelle. She was predeceased by her husband, Sylvester Strueby (July 5, 1985); and all of her siblings.
