

*Do not judge a song by its duration, Nor by the number of its notes
Judge it by the richness of its contents, Sometimes those unfinished are among the most poignant...
Do not judge a song by its duration, Nor by the number of its notes
Judge it by the way it touches and lifts the soul, Sometimes those unfinished are among the most beautiful...
And when something has enriched your life, And when it's melody lingers on in your heart.
Is it unfinished? Or is it endless?*

Bryce Edward Harris Thompson was born February 20th, 1995, at Melfort Hospital. He was the fifth child, and only son, to his parents Jan and Noreen Thompson. He attended Naicam school and graduated in 2013, going on to attend Saint Peter's College in Muenster, SK. He was very much enjoying his studies there, and had a particular interest in history. Hockey was a big part of his life, playing from Jr. Novice to Midget in both Naicam and Watson. He loved lifting weights, playing the piano, football, volleyball, baseball, snowboarding and fire spinning. He participated in Cadets and excelled at biathlon, competing at the national level in Quebec. He was a lover of comedy, and could make people laugh with his antics, accents and quotations. He was in the process of building his own computer and was excitedly giving constant updates about new parts and the progress he was making. He worked for Jim Hawrishok and Ruth Warkentin on their bee farm, with Carl Griffith at his farm, at the Venice House and landscaping in Saskatoon—he took great pride in his work and often spoke about his various tasks. He had a huge heart and brought joy and excitement to all of his family and friends. He will be greatly missed.

Left to cherish Bryce's memory are his parents, Jan and Noreen (nee Messner) Thompson; his four sisters, Courtney, Katelin, Alisha and Nadine; aunts and uncles: Cheri Berthold, Rosalind (Peter) Hardie, Mark (Patti) Thompson, Mary (Stan) Hopkins, Leona (Wes) Petrie, Cam (Lori) Messner and Cheryl (Doug) Staff; grandparents: Norma Packer and Ernie Messner; step grandparent Marlene Messner and many beloved cousins. He is predeceased by grandparents Harry and Bonnie Thompson; uncle Gilbert Berthold; great grandparents Reginald and Belle Harley; step grandfather "Papa" George Packer; and cousin Gared Staff.

In Loving Memory Of

*They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time nor reason,
Will change the way I feel,
For no-one knows the heartache,
That lies behind my smile,
No-one knows how many times,
I have broken down and cried,
I want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without.*
