Phyllis was born on May 3, 1922 to Nicholas and Maria (nee Stus) Burtney in Vonda, SK. She attended Casavant School, St. Denis to Grade 10, Grade 11 by correspondence and a commercial course at Our Lady of Sacred Heart Academy in Prud'homme. She also took extra French with the Association Catholique Franco-Canadienne de la Saskatchewan and worked at the post office and RM of Grant #372 at Vonda. On July 15, 1945 she married Anton "Tony" Thoms at the Sacred Heart Ukrainian Church in Vonda. Together, they operated a mixed grain farm, raised Hereford cattle, turkeys, geese and chickens and also had two large fruit and vegetable gardens. They were blessed with five children: Lawrence, Dolores, Leona, Ruth and Daniel. In 1949, they built their own home on the farm constructed by her father and then also had power, telephone, and water installed. They took vacations to British Columbia as well as a bus trip to Reno, Nevada. She was president of the CWL of the Holy Trinity Ukrainian Catholic Church in Bruno, SK, which was located on their land. She loved painting, baking, canning, gardening, sewing (she could take anything and make it), playing kaiser and also sold Avon for 10 years. In 1983, they moved into Humboldt. Phyllis was a very religious lady and believed in the miraculous medals which she faithfully sent to her family every year. Her faith was very important to her as well as was her family; she was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

Phyllis will be lovingly remembered by her children: Lawrence (Bev) Thoms and their family: Yvanna Ireland and her children Kristin and Kaiden Ireland, and Shannon Thoms; Dolores Jenkins and her family: Connie Poss and her daughters Kyla and Kirsten Poss, and Brent Mycock and his daughter Emaghea Ryder; son-in-law, Slimane Azoug and his family: Nina and Miriam Azoug-Boneault; Ruth (Doug) Engele and their family: Carla Engele (Vince Maletta) and children Matthew and Mikayla Raddysch, Jae-Lyn and Bella Maletta, Craig Engele, and Angela Engele and her son Lynden Engele; and Dan (Debbie) Thoms; four sisters: Julia Godwin, Victoria Burtney, Elizabeth Burtney, and Emily Schewaga; one brother-in-law, Joseph Lucas; and two sisters-in-law: Mary Burtney and Anne Thoms. She was predeceased by her husband, Anton "Tony" Thoms; daughter, Leona Boneault; son-in-law, Rick Jenkins; siblings: Helen Lucas, Bill Burtney, Jean (Bill) Charney, Marcella (John) Middleton, Pauline (Michael) Smood; sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Katie (Peter) Indzeoski, Anastasia (John) Borysko, Alice (Fred) Stadnyk, Mary (John) Hyshka, Nick (Mary) Thoms, John (Mary) Thoms, Fred (Helen) Thoms, Steve (Mary) Thoms, Peter (Angela) Thoms, Mike Thoms, Harry Thoms, Alex Schewaga, Jennie Thoms and Jack Godwin.

In Loving Memory Of

A Letter From Heaven
When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
