AGE:

98 Years

Pete, the fourth eldest of 13 children, was born to Peter and Theresa (nee Huber) Wolf at home on their farm one mile east of Mount Carmel Hill, north of Carmel, SK. He grew up there and attended Gertrude School. After completing Grade 8, he stayed home to help on the farm, where they raised crops, cattle, pigs and chickens. On July 10, 1948, Pete married Agnes Kuechle at Carmel. They made their home on the Wolfe family farm where Peter had grown up. They raised four children, two sons and two daughters. In 1974, Pete and Agnes retired into Humboldt. Occasionally, Pete was employed by others farmers and especially liked working for Matt Breker on his farm. Pete always loved the outdoor life, and particularly enjoyed fishing, trapping and hunting; he still went hunting as recent as eight years ago. In their retirement years, Pete and Agnes travelled extensively, and visited many locations in Europe, Cuba, and Mexico. They also went on bus tours in Canada and the United States. At home, Pete enjoyed tinkering his basement workshop and going for coffee in the afternoon. Agnes passed away on May 14, 2003. Pete continued to reside in their home until 2008, when he moved to Lily's Lodge in Bruno. In 2011, he became a resident at St. Mary's Villa.
