Brent was born on August 13, 1971, and was the second youngest son of Metro and Helen (nee Winnichyn) Zazula. Brent was raised in Fosston, SK and attended Rose Valley School until 1986. At that time, Brent and his family moved to Humboldt where he completed the remainder of his schooling. It was while living in Humboldt that Brent's love for the game of hockey began. Brent loved all sports, but hockey was his passion. The Edmonton Oilers were his team and Grant Fuhr, his idol. Brent was a talented goalie himself, playing with teams throughout British Columbia, Alberta, and Saskatchewan, and also with a league in California for a time. While playing in the Alberta Junior Hockey League for the Drayton Valley Crusaders, he set a record for facing the most shots in a game and that record stands to this day. Brent also shared of his time and talents with others while working in a hockey store, and later when coaching children's teams. Brent was also very creative—he had an eye for arts and design and throughout his life found ways to express this in some interesting ways. After leaving high school, he moved to California where he attended a design school to advance his gift of drawing and animation. After completing the first year of courses, he returned to Saskatchewan for summer work, and unfortunately, he sustained an injury to his hand that prevented him from pursuing his education in animation. However, rather than letting this setback be the end of his artistic expression, he chose to channel that gift in other directions using a variety of materials and techniques. He created unique artistic designs for goalie helmets as well as putting his signature art on hockey gloves. Brent had a gift for tile work and created many pieces of art using tile and grout mosaic designs, one in particular, his beautiful piece depicting the "Mother Mary" which is still in St. Augustine Parish today. Brent was presently residing in Humboldt and was employed at Schulte Industries.

Brent will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his mother, Helen (nee Winnichyn) Zazula; four brothers, two sisters, and their families: Bradley and son David; Barry (Diane) and children Brittney and Tyler; Leann (Darryl) and daughter Payge; Lynn (Mike) and son Brandon; Brian; and Wesley (Cathee); numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and relatives; and also his hockey buddies. He was predeceased by his father, Metro Zazula; grandparents Alex and Mary Winnichyn and Steve and Ann Zazula; uncles: Johnny and Mike Winnichyn, Cec Irvine, and Lenny Zazula.

In Loving Memory Of

Footprints in the Sand

*One night I dreamed a dream.
I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of
footprints in the sand,
one belonging to me and one to my Lord.*

*When the last scene of my life shot before me
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
There was only one set of footprints.
I realized that this was at the lowest and saddest times of my life.
This always bothered me and I questioned the Lord about my dilemma.*

*"Lord, You told me when I decided to follow You,
You would walk and talk with me all the way.
But I'm aware that during the most troublesome times of my life there is only one set of footprints.
I just don't understand why,
when I need You most, You leave me."*

*He whispered,
"My precious child, I love you and will never leave you, never, ever,
during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."*
