AGE:

96 Years

Agnes was the youngest child of Frederick and Katherine (nee Woell) Heidgerken. She received her education in Humboldt and Saskatoon, but Humboldt was home during her single life where she made lifelong friends. She worked with her brother, Louis, in the Heidgerken Insurance business. Agnes contributed to the war effort with time spent in Ottawa working for the federal government. She was a devoted member of St. Augustine Roman Catholic Parish and joined the CWL at age 20 years, receiving 75 years recognition. Agnes became a novice of the Oblates of St. Benedict (St. Peter's Abbey) July 1962 and a full-fledged Oblate July 1963. She cared about her community and supported the Friends of the Water Tower in their fundraising efforts to preserve it as a municipal heritage property. On October 20, 1962 Agnes married Adolph Zintel of Humboldt (Marysburg). They lived in Humboldt, Saskatoon and Kelowna. Agnes and Adolph travelled, socialized with friends and relatives, maintained a yard and garden as well as fruit trees in Kelowna. They held family gatherings on special holidays throughout the year which the grandchildren loved dearly. The practice of their faith and church attendance was a big part of their life. They returned to Humboldt in 1981. In December of 2009, Agnes became a resident of St. Mary's Villa, Humboldt, until her passing.
